Dear [Redacted]

During the month of May, 1986, a thorough review of criminal cases assigned in the Chicago Division of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) was conducted to determine the prosecutive status of each case. Attached is a list representing a complete inventory of all those Chicago Division-FBI cases presently assigned in the Chicago Strike Force Office of the United States Department of Justice. A review of this list will reveal certain cases wherein there is a continuing need either for action by your office or your support in conjunction with our investigative efforts. These cases have been noted as "previously reported delinquent" for your attention.

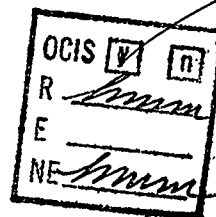

Your cooperation in processing these cases will be greatly appreciated and if any investigative or other support is required of the FBI, please contact me immediately.

In view of the mutually agreed upon memorandum of understanding of May 10, 1983, committing the Chicago FBI, Chicago Strike Force, and the Office of the United States Attorney, Northern District of Illinois, to the vigorous investigation and prosecution of organized crime cases, copies of this report are being furnished to the United States Attorney Anton R. Valukas for his information and review.

Sincerely,

EDWARD D. HEGARTY

Chicago area La Cosa Nostra (LCN) members and associates continue a pattern of labor racketeering, bribery, extortion, embezzlement, kickbacks to union officials and money laundering.

This criminal activity is extremely profitable to the LCN. Fear of violence, labor trouble and disruption of businesses result in employers paying money demanded by corrupt labor union representatives.

In order to clearly picture the separate Chicago [redacted] cases and LCN associations, a link chart was prepared by Chicago OCIS analyst [redacted]. During the course of this analysis, it was discovered that the separate cases in Chicago are linked together [redacted]

In addition, a number of national [redacted] links became apparent with regard to [redacted]. [redacted] OCIS developed links to not only [redacted] but [redacted] [redacted] members 300 dollars to keep working, and also to get the job. There were many people who had to pay [redacted] they were forced to in the Hancock building

Also he was taking payoffs from a guy named [redacted]

[redacted] who owns a [redacted]

gave [redacted] a free car so the company could fire anybody they wanted. It was a 1980 Oldsmobile that the [redacted] used to drive, a man named [redacted]

[redacted] used to go to dinner with [redacted] [redacted] from the company all the time. This was very common, [redacted] would come into the Hancock building and brag how he put the car in his [redacted] name. This is a shame, we have a good union and officers but a bad apple gets in once in a while. [redacted]

[redacted] also got [redacted] a job with a company who has a union contract a company called [redacted]

[redacted] and fired a lot people for complaining to the union.

[redacted]

[redacted] tried to cover it up, but every body at the union knows this. I thinkc the union fired [redacted] but they cannot put him in court, you should not let [redacted] get away with these crimes, we left that kind of government in Poland and came here for freedom please do your job we women in the union are angry and want justise.

Life in the limo lane ...

Frank Sinatra occupied a seat in his limo's tailcar last week while his pals speeded ahead in the Sinatramobile. Security. Security. And here are a few names from a list of pals yukking it up with Ol' Blue Eyes last week: Ben Stein, Frank Leahy and Lenny Garmisa. Frank's favorite topic: comedian Joey Lewis. . . Luciano Pavarotti didn't want to wait for a limousine to drive him to rehearsal the other day, so he borrowed the Lyric Opera's house car and drove himself, just like a real person.

The enterprise of [] is ran by []
[] at this time.

b6
b7C

[] is known as a tyrant of the maintenance employees and murderer.

The only way to get a job [] is to pay or buy your way in.

At the present time the fee is two thousand dollars.

He does not hirer blacks, because they don't want to pay the fee, and as [] says "they don't work good" - besides, he means " I don't like blacks".

For vacationing substitutes he does not take union workers who are on a temporary lay off, but instead new workers whom he does not report to the union, but who pay the bribe for being employed.

He organized a group of janitors to clean offices and houses on the outskirts of Chicago, paying them low wages with high benefits for himself.

He doesn't report them to the union, and robs the government as well.

[] made his fortune from bribes from Polish maintenance workers.

b6
b7C

[] succeeded in buying representatives from the Lokal 25 Union -
[] being at the head.

No more can you ask for help from the union.

First the secretary asks what you want, then your name and then she answers that representative is not in the office or that he is at a conference or your problems are not his department etc. etc.

However the Union representatives have time for dinner treated by []

Working with the constant fear of loosing our jobs, we do his worst requirements.

We saffer in silence so he doesn't systematically throw us out one by one, and murder us, as it has already happened with one of our fellow country man.

Proof to that affect is the murder of a Pole who was fired after six months of work, and when he asked for his two thousand dollars back from [] which he paid him for getting the job.

b6
b7C

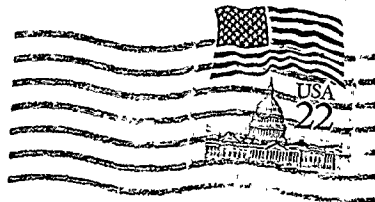

Shortly after words was found murdered in an alley by his home.

Amoung the the hundreds of [] workers, there is none which haven't possed smaller or biger tragedies as he tried to get rid of them.

In every newly contracted building he gets rid of about 40% of the workers, so he could hire new workers that pay bribes in their place.

We hope in God , that after reading our declaration, the representatives of the buildings in Chicago, lokal authorities of the peoples and workers rights, criminal authorities and representatives of our black brothers will stand in the protection of the maintenance workers []

We cannot sign any letters of complaints today in fear of loosing our jobs or even our lives.
